Six Parties in Ballot Con-

Seats—Son of Lloyd
George Resigns Office.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 8.—Prime Minister MacDonald asked the voters in a nationwide broadcast last night to elect candidates who would stand by the National Government and to give him a mandate "which can be weakened by no faction or opposition, organized or disorganized."

He warned that failure to do so might in the coming months of emergency, "involve this country and other nations as well in financial and political distress and perhaps even revolution. Your duty is plain—the nation first."

"I would that every party would join up and make the world believe that a nation united in national policy," he said, "but if that is not to be, let the vast majority of the electors of all classes and all parties see to it that the Government receives from their hands a mandate which is complete, the terms of which have been so well defined."

Would Remove War Debts.
In an election manifesto issued yesterday appealing for a free hand to deal with each such situation, MacDonald declared national unity to be as essential now as it was in August, when his emergency government was formed.

In one of the striking passages of the manifesto he said that "the hour of the nation's life is at hand" and that every international agreement should be set going to remove "some of the most fruitful causes of the economic misfortunes—like war debts and reparations—like which the whole world now suffers so grievously."

Trying a monetary policy to establish sterling in "confidence and authority," he added that "in the hour of the nation's life, and looking at every point in connection with it, must be the question of unemployment, especially in its most important aspect of finding work by expansion of markets both at home and abroad."

Explaining the structure of his national government, MacDonald said it must not involve the loss of the political identities of the parties forming it.

"The immediate tasks are temporary and when finished will be followed by normal political action," he declared.

1900 Parliamentary Candidates.
MacDonald will begin his personal campaign in St. Helens Harbor on Monday, his sixty-fifth birthday. He is credited with holding the balance of 40 to 50 Labor members of Parliament and candidates in that district, in spite of the invasion of Labor leaders to run a candidate against him. He may have a Communist opponent, but Stanley Baldwin, leader of the Conservative party and President of the Council in the MacDonald ministry, tonight called on Conservatives and Unionists to support the National Government in the general election.

"We are not yet earning enough to pay for what we have to do," he said, "in an election battle, and unless this position can be altered, the nation will be driven to the brink of ultimate bankruptcy."

War debts and reparations, distribution of the world's food supply and the outstanding issues which will face the next government, he said.

Revaluation of the pound sterling to a valid substitute for a tariff, he declared, adding that "I shall continue to press upon the voters my opinion that the tariff is the quickest and most effective weapon to reduce excessive imports and to induce the export of our goods."

Lloyd George is understood to have picked his party "war chest" stimulating speculation as to the source from which the Liberal group, headed by Sir John Simon and Sir Herbert Samuel, will get funds for campaign expenses.

Indicted in Dog Track Inquiry

ALVIN C. BOHM
(State Attorney)
EDWARD J. O'HARE
(President of International Greyhound Association)

RICHARD WILDER
(Kennel Club President)
DANIEL O'NEIL
(Kennel Club Manager)

followed him. The furniture in the Florida home did not cost more than $20,000, according to the attorney's statements, and there was a mortgage on the home for $10,000.

Judge Wilkerson said it appeared to him that the evidence was admissible but he permitted defense attorneys to argue the point.

"I probably will tend to prove," said the court, "at least that Capone fled to avoid a tax return."

Defense Attorney Michael Ahern said "an admission by an attorney against a client in one case cannot be used as evidence in another case. I believe Mattingly had no authority to make some of the statements, anyway."

JUDGE'S ACCOUNT OF $25,000 OFFER FROM DOG TRACK

Indictment are: Wilder; Daniel O'Neil of St. Louis, club manager; Edward J. O'Hare of St. Louis, president and counsel; Harry Faulkner of Granite City and former County Judge Henry B. Eaton of Edwardsville. Judge Bernreuter fixed nominal bonds for the defendants, the maximum being $5000. Bench warrants for their arrest will be issued today.

Elison announced it was planned to bring the defendants to trial within 30 days. It is possible, he indicated, the grand jury may return further indictments after its recess, subject to recall at any time.

Penalties for the offenses charged in the indictments are as follows:

Maintenance in office, a fine of not to exceed $10,000. Conviction also subjects the offender to the possibility of removal from office.

Conspiracy to violate the State law, not less than a year, more than two, in the penitentiary.

Attempted bribery, fine not to exceed $5000.

Conspiracy to offer a bribe, one to 10 years in the penitentiary, or a jail term of not over a year, or a fine of $1000.

Operating a gambling house, a fine of not less than $100 for the first offense, not less than a $500 fine and not less than a six months jail sentence for the second offense, and not less than a $500 fine and a penitentiary term of two to five years, for the third and succeeding offenses. Bookmaking and pool-selling are subject to similar fines.

Bohm, who succeeded Judge Brown as State Attorney in 1927, being appointed to fill out his term, resigned to make a successful campaign for election as Circuit Judge, accused the special prosecutors today of playing politics, seeking office for themselves, and said every act of the special jury was illegal. "I referred to the jury as 'hand-picked' and said it would not stand a test 'in any court.'"

E. E. Campbell, president of the Press-Record Co. of Granite City, said his company did some job printing for the kennel club but did not consider it constituted a basis for an indictment.

Judge Bernreuter, who instructed the grand jury to go into the dog track situation "thoroughly" and make the chips fly, characterized it "as the finest grand jury ever impaneled in Madison County."

Pressure on Two Judges.

"The grand jury finds that two of the three Circuit Judges of the circuit in which Madison County is located have for some time past been doing all within their power to bring about the closing of said club; that prior to the opening of the May, 1931, term of the Circuit Court pressure was exerted on one of the two said Judges not to hold court in Madison County during the May term; that this attempt to prevent the sitting of said Judge was in order that the Madison Kennel Club be not molested; that said Judge so approached refused not to hold court in Madison County during the May term, and that when he did so he again renewed his opposition to the operation of the said club; that no action was taken by the law-enforcement officials; that later the second of said two Judges opposed to the operation of the said Madison Kennel Club was offered the sum of $25,000 if he would grant an injunction restraining the Sheriff and the State's Attorney from interfering with the operation of said club; that said Judge so approached flatly refused said offer; but that later the third Judge of the circuit granted the injunction desired by the said Madison Kennel Club."

"5. The special grand jury feels that there may be other matters in connection with the operation of said club which may need investigation."

KIDNAPING VICTIM FREED, SAYS GANG SET HIM ON FIRE

St. Paul, Minn., Merchant Declares Alcohol Was Poured on Him and Ignited—Tells of Beating.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 8.—Tortured and beaten, Morris Rutman, 27 years old, woman's dress shop proprietor, was released by his kidnapers early today after being held prisoner three days at a White Bear Lake cottage near here.

From a hospital bed where he was taken after making his way home, Rutman said a gang of seven men and a woman had poured alcohol over his body, then touched matches to it, burning him severely. He demanded a ransom of $50,000, he said. Chief of Police Thomas A. Brown said, however, $10,000 was demanded for freedom "but not one cent was paid."

Friends reported some money had been paid by relatives, but this could not be verified.

Rutman was abducted from his home Monday night as he chatted with his wife. A masked man, wielding a pistol, ordered him to get into the car. He was taken to a cottage near White Bear Lake, where three more men and a woman waited.

They beat him on the head, trussed him with rope and covered him from the floor of the car with a blanket, he said. As near as he could determine, he was taken to a cottage near White Bear Lake, where three more men and a woman waited.

They tortured him when he refused to talk, he said. The woman treated the burns and bandaged his leg and shoulder, which were severely burned.

Rutman refused to say what arrangements, if any, were made for his freedom. On his release, the abductors took him by automobile to the northwest residential district of St. Paul and threw him from the car. He began walking, but was soon picked up and taken home by a passing motorist. He was then taken to a hospital.

Rutman's kidnapping was the second in less than a week. Leon Gleckman, St. Paul politician and finance company head, was abducted Sept. 24 and released eight days later. Five of his alleged kidnapers are in jail. A sixth was shot to death by associated police because members of the gang feared he would expose them.

James Egan Lynch of Sullivan and Walter Earl of St. Paul were arrested and identified by Rutman as two of the seven men who held him prisoner.

$2,000,000 SEED LOANS REPAID IN ADVANCE

Farmers in drouth areas who borrowed about $47,000,000 in seed loans from the Department of Agriculture have repaid more than $2,000,000, although the first loans do not fall due until Oct. 31.

By the Associated Press.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 8.—Lieut. Philip A. Tague and Chief Aviation Pilot E. S. Whitman of the navy took to their parachutes yesterday after their two-seater observation plane collided with a single-seater fighter, nearly a mile in the air. They landed safely.

Ensign William M. Walsh, piloting the single-seater, gambled with a broken strut and brought his observation plane down on the naval air station field, while the other ship crashed near the Virginia Railway tracks at East camp.

The accident occurred during gunnery maneuvers.

There have been few requests for extensions of loans, Hoffman said, adding that although the Government expects payment, it does not desire to inflict undue hardships on borrowers. Loans were made to 285,000 persons in drouth areas of 31 states and to 107,000 persons in this district.

R. H. McElveen, in charge of the St. Louis Farmers' Seed Loan Office, warns cotton growers against selling cotton in the seed, a practice which he predicts will result in heavy losses. He points out that farmers with long staple cotton will realize no more in this manner than farmers with short staple cotton.

City Employees Assessed for Relief.

CITY ANSWERS SUIT ATTACKING USE OF ROTARY PAYING MIXER

Denies It Increases Cost of Streets Free Bidding by Contractors.

The city filed an answer in Circuit Judge Hartmann's court yesterday to the taxpayers' suit filed a week ago, which attacked the validity of the city's new requirement for use of a patented rotary mixer in laying asphalt paving. The answer, in the names of members of the Board of Public Service, denied that the board, by specifying this method or in any other way had restricted full and free competition of bidding.

While the board knows of no patented mixer of this nature but the Finley mixer, now in use among contractors here, which will produce asphalt equal in uniformity and texture to that from this device, the answer said, the board did not specify that only the Finley mixer might be used. If any other machine is made, the answer continued, whereby asphalt cement from the floor of the city is used upon heated stone and sand, it may be used, whether patented or not.

The board denied the allegation in the suit that the pavements produced by this mixer were not superior to other types, and denied that the requirement for the rotary mixer increased the cost to the taxpayer.

Judge Hartmann yesterday postponed hearing of the suit until Oct. 21 at the request of counsel for the Trinidad Asphalt Manufacturing Co., which has the contract to pave Kingshighway Northwest, between West Florissant avenue and Hall's Ferry road, with rotary mixed asphalt. The injunction suit was brought by two property owners on that street, who alleged that the rotary mixer increased the cost to the street of the pavement and free competition and did not make a superior pavement.

WOMAN WHO SHOT GANGSTER FOUND SLAIN IN CHICAGO

Lillian Miller, Former Companion of Frank McErlane, Wounded Him Last Year in Quarrel.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Lillian Miller, known to police as a shoplifter and one-time companion of Frank McErlane, notorious gangster, was found shot to death today in McErlane's automobile. Her body was riddled with bullets. Miss Miller, also known as Mrs. Mary Ryan, shot McErlane after a quarrel in February, 1930.

A neighbor said she had seen the woman enter the car with McErlane at 5:30 p. m. yesterday. McErlane also used the name Ryan. McErlane, beer runner, burglar, gangster and reputed killer, more than once has narrowly escaped death. In February, 1930, McErlane's hospital room was invaded by gunmen who sent three bullets into his leg and body while he lay already wounded. He drew a pistol from beneath his pillow and put his assailants to flight.

At that time, police put aside the gang execution theory and suspected a woman instigated the attack. McErlane was never married, so far as known, but frequently was involved in affairs with women.

Four times in his 30-year police record, McErlane has been charged with murder.

While McErlane and his brothers, Vincent and John, were sought to explain today's shooting, the police had little on which to base a solution. Attackers may have sought to kill McErlane and slain the woman instead, it was pointed out.

Two dogs were found shot dead near the car. Police also suggested a theory that the gangster had quarreled with the woman. In the car were two suitcases containing her clothes and a revolver. She apparently had dressed hastily, wearing house slippers.

On June 5, last, McErlane stood on a South Side corner and fired a few shots to amuse himself. When arraigned the next day, he still was affected by liquor. Shortly before this incident, a married sister had caused his arrest on a charge that he bit her cheek in a fit of anger.

In the McErlane home today was found evidence of a liquor party last night.

Police later said Miss Miller had a record as a shoplifter in St. Louis and that she was known as McErlane's common law wife. She was commonly known as Mary Miller, but police records here listed her as Lillian Miller.

Miss Miller had been arrested frequently under various aliases here and in St. Louis. She was known as Hilda Clark, Margaret McDonald, Hilda Cliney and Helma Sidney.

McErlane himself may have been wounded, police said when they learned that a physician had been called by "Mr. Ryan" to the McErlane home last night.

Evidence of a fight in the automobile was seen in a smashed rear window and bullet holes at various angles. Search of the house disclosed automatic pistols, machine guns and revolvers.

Miss Miller was arrested on a shoplifting charge in St. Louis in March, 1924, when she gave her name as Margaret H. McDonald, her age as 24, and her address as Belleville. She jumped a $1500 bond, but was arrested a year later in Chicago, brought to St. Louis and sentenced to a year in the penitentiary.

FORMER DEPUTY ENDS JAIL TERM, IS ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Edwin D. Kelting Held on Burglary Warrant by Police.

Edwin D. Kelting, former deputy constable of Central Township, St. Louis County, was released from Clayton jail yesterday after serving a term for oppression. He was arrested immediately by St. Louis detectives on a burglary warrant.

Kelting is charged with participation in the burglary last January at R. G. Dun & Co., 404 North Fourth street, in which $450 cash, $100 in stamps, and stock certificates valued at $2000 were taken from a safe. He was placed in the holdover pending efforts to furnish bond.

In March, 1929, Kelting was fined $300 and costs by a jury at Clayton for oppression in office in a case growing out of his alleged acceptance of money from a motorist he had arrested for speeding. Payment of the fine was stayed until November, 1930, when a stolen automobile was found in a garage operated by Kelting at 2451 Lafayette avenue. He was unable to pay the $300 and was sent to jail.

BANK'S $3,691,000 EMBEZZLER GETS AT LEAST 10 YEARS

Ten One-to-Ten Sentences to Run Consecutively, Apparently to Preclude Early Chance for Parole.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Walter E. Wolf, who embezzled $3,691,000 from the Continental Illinois Bank & Trust Co., was sentenced to serve from one to 10 years on each of 10 indictments today. The sentences were made to run consecutively and Wolf will not be eligible for parole until he has served 10 years.

Chief Justice Harry M. Fisher in Criminal Court pronounced the sentence on the long-trusted employee of Chicago's largest bank whose diversion of securities to his own ventures in the stock market made him the greatest individual embezzler on record.

His own confession to bank officers had disclosed the immense losses before auditors discovered his "borrowing" of securities. He had covered the diversions over a 12-year period by manipulation of records in the coupon department, of which he was manager.

The indictments charged embezzlement of $1,047,000, only a part of the amount Wolf admitted taking. Most of the loss was covered by insurance, part of it by recovery of securities.

Meanwhile investigation of the part taken by Wolf's brokers in the speculations proceeded. David D. Weiss, a tailor who turned broker in the 1929 bull market, is under indictment for larceny because of his alleged dealings with Wolf.

CONFESSION AT VARIANCE WITH BALLISTICS EVIDENCE

Youth Admits Killing Deputy, Though Expert Said Others Owned Revolver.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
BELVIDERE, Ill., Oct. 8.—Evidence produced in a murder investigation by ballistics experts was contradicted today in the confession of Marvin Howe, 25 years old, who admitted, police said, that on Dec. 13 he killed Deputy Sheriff Harry Wilkinson during a holdup at Herbert, near here.

Calvin C. Goddard, Chicago ballistics authority, swore in court that the revolver which killed Wilkinson was owned by two men now serving life sentences in Joliet prison.

Goddard's testimony was so impressive that 10 jurors voted to send the murder suspects, Joseph Skostek and Victor Zambrowski of Rockford, to the electric chair. The jury disagreed, however. Instead of being retried for murder, the men were sentenced for committing a series of holdups. Goddard said his tests proved that the bullet taken from the deputy's body had been fired from a revolver found in possession of the defendants.

Howe, arrested in St. Paul, told police he killed Wilkinson with a revolver which he borrowed from a resident of Sycamore, Ill. The weapon is of the same caliber as Zambrowski's trial.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 8.—His arms outstretched, the Holyoke "scarecrow man" is standing rigid in a room at Colorado Psychopathic Hospital.

The man, found last Sunday in a cornfield near Holyoke, Colo., has relaxed to sleep once or twice, but has taken virtually no food. Doctors said. He stands rigid with arms outstretched as if he were posing as a scarecrow. The rise

POLICE BOARD AGAIN WARNS OFFICERS AGAINST DRINKING

Dismisses Patrolman but Makes Him Prison Guard Because of "Economic Conditions."

Police again were warned against the use of intoxicants following the dismissal by the Police Board yesterday of Patrolman William Gordon, Dayton Street District, charged with drinking when on duty.

Because of "current economic conditions" Gordon was immediately appointed a prison guard at a salary of $140 a month. He received $130 monthly as patrolman. Former Mayor Kiel, president of the Police Board, said in connection with the case: "Our action today should be carefully noted by all concerned. This police commission is unalterably opposed to the use of intoxicating liquor by any member of the department, and it will go hard with anyone disregarding this policy. Nothing could demoralize a police department more rapidly than the use of intoxicants by its members." Kiel's statement will be published in the Police Journal, the department publication.

Gordon was charged with showing evidence that he had been drinking on reporting for duty at Sportsman's Park on the first day of the world series.

A Brand New Message for Every Man Who is Skeptical About a good Clothing Value

at $25

With extra pair of trousers, $30

This should be the most convincing demonstration that has ever been made in the field of clothing tailored for gentlemen. Read—

BUY a Challenger Suit

wear it six months. If at the end of that time with normal care and usage it has not given satisfactory wear or retained its smartly tailored style, bring it back and we will refund your money

Only a few years ago we sold suits at $45 that were not only considered good value by us, but were readily accepted as such by the very men of good taste who now hesitate to pay less than that.

Today this $25 Challenger suit of ours is even better than the $45 suit was at that time. We made both lines ourselves. WE KNOW.

It is possible to do this because of lower prices in the basic markets—because of better organization and larger production facilities.

There are three principal things that the buyer looks for in purchasing clothing:

- (1) good fabric quality; (2) workmanship;
- (3) style in both fabric and finished garments.

All of these are embodied in our Challenger suits this Fall to a degree never before attained in men's clothing at or near this price.

LEADERS LARGELY APPROVE HOOVER'S CREDIT PROPOSAL

Members of Congress,
Bankers and Economists
Comment on Plan Aimed to Relieve Depression.

Individual opinion on President
Hoover's credit plan continues largely favorable. Excerpts from views expressed by members of Congress, bankers and economists follow:

Senator Caraway (Dem.), Ark.—
If President Hoover believed his plan would be effective in reviving business he should call Congress into session at once instead of waiting for the regular session when the farmers' assets will be out of his hands and Congress will be working for the gamblers. The approach of cold weather necessitates action to curtail suffering.

Senator Glenn (Rep.), Illinois—
It was a necessary and timely act and showed that when occasion really demands united action in the common interest of our country partisan feeling and all other considerations and influences are submerged.

Senator Harris (Dem.), Georgia—
On the surface the plan looks to be all right.

Gov. Wilbur L. Cross of Connecticut—"I believe President Hoover proposes inflation of currency although he does not use the word inflation. If we can keep that within bounds it will help us. We can do that by making the assets of a bank and other financial institutions more liquid."
Our Legislators would do much if they would follow the advice of the economists and drop politics altogether.

Representative Hill (Dem.),
Washington: President Hoover's suggested plan goes to the root of the economic difficulties. I heartily approve of it.

E. F. Swinney, Kansas City, chairman of the First National Bank: At first thought I am not at all impressed with the proposition.
This from my belief that if we could leave the country alone and stop tinkering with everything pertaining to business, we would be a darned sight better off.

Lynn P. Talley, San Francisco, chairman of the board of directors of the Bank of America: There is every reason to believe confidently that it will result in great good and progressive stability in the present instance.

Alfred E. Smith—Undoubtedly President Hoover's plan to aid the banks and the Federal farm loan system is helpful in this crisis. Increased confidence credit will aid in the necessary process of re-establishing confidence and checking liquidation.

William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor—
The program is a constructive step.
It will have a profound and helpful effect. It will tend to create confidence, particularly in the banks. The indirect effect is bound to be helpful in the employment or unemployment situation.

Alfred P. Sloan Jr., President of General Motors Corporation—I am convinced that the plan of the President is highly constructive. It will mobilize our financial resources and enable them to be used where they will do the most good under guidance of those who can deal with each problem with definite knowledge of its necessities.

Samuel McRoberts, Chairman,
Chatham Phenix National Bank &
Trust Co.—It will marshal resources of the country in a central institution which will make available to localities, where necessary, assistance which will do much toward a revival of confidence and stability. It is workable and need not entail losses upon any individual or institution.

Charles G. Dawes, Ambassador to Great Britain—The President's plan came at an opportune time when under the natural laws a reaction in the mass attitude, from the extreme pessimism of the last two years, is due.

Edwin R. A. Seligman, professor of economics at Columbia University—The action taken by President Hoover is wholly admirable.
Our resources are so enormous that there ought to be no doubt of our ability to weather the storm.

A spoonful of this soothing alkali restores the proper alkaline balance to an acid-soaked system. Then the stomach, liver and bowels function as they should.

Evangelist Stops in New York on Way to Boston With Her Husband, D. L. Hutton.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Aimee Semple McPherson and her husband, David L. Hutton, stepped off a train at Grand Central Station today, beamed before a battery of cameras, then rushed to Newark to catch a plane for Boston.
"We were terribly in love," Mrs. Hutton said, then went on to explain: "Ours is a perfect marriage from three points of view—friendship, love and evangelism."
She was dressed in an all-blue tailored suit, blue felt hat varying slightly from the Empress Eugenie model, blue hose and blue shoes. Fingering a bouquet of orchids, she said of her husband David: "He sings like an angel. He says he fell in love with me the first time he saw me. I fell in love with him the first time I heard him sing. He was singing, 'Nay, I will not let you go,' and I knew he was singing directly to me."

Leavenworth's Change From Daylight to Standard Time Cut Them Off Radio.

By the Associated Press.
LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 8.—Amos 'n' Andy were blamed by authorities of the Federal penitentiary here for a disturbance among the convicts which ceased early today after jeering, catcalling and the smashing of windows. Abandonment of daylight saving time was a teammate of the pair in causing the disorder, the authorities said.

Heretofore the prisoners have been permitted to follow the vicissitudes of the proprietors of the Fresh Air Taxi Co., which began at 9 p. m., Central standard time. However, with the abandonment of daylight saving for standard time the program does not go on the air until 10 p. m., 45 minutes after the radio must be shut off under prison rules.

Car Crashes Onto Track but Baseball Special Is Rerouted in Time.

By the Associated Press.
PARADISE, Pa., Oct. 8.—Possible accident or delay to the special train bearing the St. Louis Cardinals to their home city to resume the world series was averted by quick action last night after an automobile smashed through a guard rail to the railroad tracks, killing two occupants of the machine.

P. E. Beane, who lives near the scene of the accident, telephoned a towerman eastward, who routed the Cardinal's train to another track.

The automobile crashed to the tracks after a blowout sent it careening into another machine and thence through the guard rail. The victims were Lou Goldstein and M. M. Beck.

BABY STRANGLES TO DEATH
Awaiting Operation to Remove Bean From Bronchial Tube.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 8.—While Anna Jane Rowan, 2-year-old daughter of a Salem, Ark., farmer, waited in a hospital here today for the removal of a bean from her bronchial tube, a fit of coughing dislodged the bean and she strangled to death. The city's eye, ear, nose and throat specialists were assembled a few feet away for a lecture by Dr. Arthur J. Bedell of Albany, N. Y., a specialist.

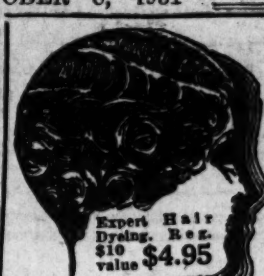

The child swallowed the bean when at play in her Arkansas home and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rowan, were advised to seek immediate treatment here. The infant was examined yesterday, physicians finding the object lodged in such a way that they deemed the child in no immediate danger.

PHONE TOLL FIGHT WITH BELL SYSTEM IS HEARD BY I. C. C.

Oklahoma-Arkansas Co. an Independent Line, Declares It Has Been Deprived of Its Share.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 8.—The long fight of an independent local telephone company against the Bell system came before the Interstate Commerce Commission here this week when Myron Witter, an examiner for the Federal regulatory body heard the testimony offered by the contesting companies. The fight involves the proper division of toll revenues derived from messages handled over Bell lines but originating or terminating at stations of the independent company, the Oklahoma-Arkansas Telephone Co. The independent company also is seeking to compel the Bell system to give it connections at Fort Smith for its two circuits between Fort Smith and Poteau, Ok.

Early in 1928, the Bell system installed its own switchboard at Poteau, in a territory theretofore served exclusively by the Oklahoma-Arkansas Co., and discontinued handling messages over the independent company's toll lines into Fort Smith.

The Supreme Court of Oklahoma last May ordered the Bell company's switchboard removed from Poteau on the ground that it had been illegally installed and the Bell company complied but still refused long distance connection with the Oklahoma-Arkansas Co.'s lines.

In the action before the Interstate Commerce Commission the independent company not only is seeking connection and a proper division of rates, but also reimbursement for $1800 in tolls of which it asserts it has been deprived in the last three years.

The Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., resisting the independent company's claims, asserts the Interstate Commerce Commission is without jurisdiction and sets up a counter claim for $4000 in tolls. Briefs are to be filed by both sides by Nov. 6.

SUIT OVER ELECTRICIANS' PAY FILED AGAINST SCHOOL BOARD

Action Seeks to Restrain Payment of $2 an Hour When Others Would Do Work for $1.65.

Suit to restrain the Board of Education from paying $2 an hour for electricians when "other competent and efficient electrical workers would do the same work" for $1.65 an hour or less, was filed in Circuit Court today by Jerome F. Duggan, an attorney representing a group of taxpayers.

While the petition does not set forth the situation, it is known that failure of several low-bidding contractors to get school board work is the motive behind the suit. To avoid labor difficulties, the board has hired its own electricians at $2 an hour, instead of paying $1.65 plus 25 cents a man for insurance. They are forbidden by law to add the insurance charge.

Recent wage agreements, framed after four local electrical organizations were ousted from the State by the State Supreme Court for violation of anti-trust laws, stipulated a $2-an-hour wage scale, of which 25 cents is withheld by the employer and sent to an insurance agency.

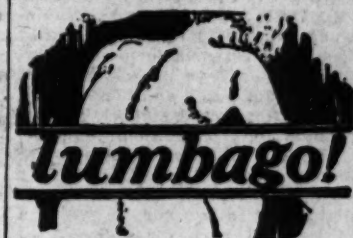

Failure by the School Board to pay the insurance charge led to a strike of 19 union electricians last June. Because of the number of buildings under construction, the board decided to abandon competitive bidding and hire its own electrical workers at $2 an hour.

PAIR IN PARKED AUTO ROBBED OF MONEY, JEWELRY AND CAR

Three Men Trying to Steal Safe at Bakery Get Away Before Police Arrive.

Seated in a parked automobile at Devonshire and Jamieson avenues last night, Fred Allison, 7016 West Park avenue, and Miss Wilma Kasten, 7632 Jerome avenue, Maplewood, were held up by two armed men who forced them to get out of the car. Allison was robbed of $1.50 and a watch and Miss Kasten of two rings valued at $110. The robbers took Allison's automobile. Three men who broke through a screen at the bakery of Max Schultz, 2627 Marcus avenue, last night and attempted to steal a 1000-pound safe were discovered by a neighbor who called police. The sound of approaching police cars frightened the robbers and they fled to their automobile, leaving the safe in a hallway. Seth Reynolds, 221 North Taylor avenue, was held up at Papin street and Boyle avenue last night by two men, one of them armed, who stopped the bakery wagon Reynolds was driving. They took $25.

Mrs. Leta Bialock, 1436 Laurel avenue, beat off a man who attempted to snatch her purse at Hodiamont and Wells avenues yesterday afternoon. When she and the man fell to the ground in the struggle, she screamed and the man ran to an automobile in which an accomplice was waiting, and escaped.

Detroit Doctor's Body Found.

By the Associated Press.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 8.—Searchers yesterday found the body of Dr. Benjamin Bryant, 64-year-old Detroit physician, in the Detroit River near Ecorse. His automobile was found standing on the Ambassador Bridge Tuesday night and police said he leaped from the bridge.

JEFFERSON CITY LUMBERMAN ENDS LIFE IN AUTOMOBILE

Herbert Jordan, Worried Over Business, Found Shot, With Pistol and Note at Side.

By the Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 8.—Herbert Jordan, 32 years old, son of Lee Jordan, lumberman, was found dead in his automobile here early today, shot through the heart. A pistol and a note on the seat beside him indicated he had taken his own life.

Jordan, associated with his father in business, had been worried for several weeks over business conditions. The lumber company recently was placed in the hands of creditors.

A brother, Dorsey Jordan, 36 years old, was killed in an airplane accident at Mokane, Mo., about two months ago. Herbert Jordan's widow and daughter, a sister, three brothers and his father and mother survive.

PARTS OF SHIP-TO-SHORE PLANE FOUND; NO HOPE FOR FLYERS

Not the Slightest Chance That Two Men Are Alive, Says Member of Searching Party.

By the Associated Press.
FAIRBORO, N. S., Oct. 8.—A broken pontoon of an airplane, bits of smashed wing, a customs manifest and two sodden passenger hats found in Cobequid Bay last night, virtually established the fate of Fritz Simon and Rudolph Wogenknecht, Bremen ship-to-shore flyers.

"There is not the slightest chance of their being alive," Lieut. Louis Leigh, a search pilot, said.

Lieut. Leigh, with J. R. McGowan in the seaplane Pioneer, first found traces of the mail plane which crashed off Economy Point Tuesday morning. In his opinion the German flyers, who had been entrusted with the task of flying the mail from the liner Bremen at sea to New York, met death after trying to make a landing.

ORDERS INVESTIGATION OF TWO BANKRUPTCIES

Referee Acts on Learning Personnel of Firms Is Same to Some Extent.

An investigation of the bankrupt Starr Dress Co., in connection with the recent bankruptcy of the Unique Dress Co., was ordered by Referee in Bankruptcy Coles yesterday after Frank J. Starr, president of the Starr company and former salesman for the Unique company, testified the personnel of the two firms was to some extent the same.

"The failure of the Unique company was one of the worst in my 13 years' experience, in the relation of assets to liabilities," Referee Coles said in ordering the investigation by Trustee Orville Livingston. "I recall that that company bought a lot of materials and made them into dresses before bankruptcy but had little to show in assets at the end."

J. M. Novack, president of the Unique company, testified at a hearing of that case last spring that the concern usually had about 2000 dresses on hand, but had only three on the day of the filing of the bankruptcy petition. Vice President Sol Kessler testified to the disappearance of a large number of dresses of the Unique company, but said most of them were recovered. Starr, at that time, stood on his constitutional right and refused to testify about his activities with the Unique company.

Starr said yesterday that he organized the Starr company in November, 1929, about a month after the Unique company became bankrupt, paying in a capital of $10,000 with money borrowed from a bank, his father-in-law, L. A. Goldstein, and his wife's uncle, Arnold Lowenstein.

Goldstein opened a dress store in 1930, Starr said, with merchandise of the Starr Co. received, together with cash, for an investment of $2500 in the Starr Co.

"Didn't you and your brother, Max, reverse your positions with the two companies?" the witness was asked. "Yes, he was an officer and I was a salesman for the Unique Co., but in the new company it was the other way," Starr answered.

"How did you manage to build up such a big deficit?" asked the referee, after glancing at schedules showing liabilities of $25,445 and assets of $10,243. "I didn't build it up," retorted the witness. "I was working to win, but we had some back on returned dresses—we took the designer from the Unique Co. with us."

"It was bad luck for the creditors, I guess," Referee Coles remarked.

KLEENEX
Disposable Tissues

YOU can't blame others for avoiding you when you use a dirty handkerchief. It is not only repulsive to look at. It's an actual source of danger, to those about you as well as to yourself. Scientific tests show a single use may pour 240,000 germs into a handkerchief! Think what it must contain after you've carried it all day long!

Use Kleenex
Now Kleenex tissues end forever the menace of the handkerchief. So inexpensive that you use Kleenex only once, then destroy! No soiled handkerchief goes back to self-infect. And think of the wonderful convenience! No laundering—and any woman who's washed dirty handkerchiefs knows what that means. Made from finest rayon-cellulose, Kleenex is far softer, more absorbent than linen.

Other Uses
Try Kleenex for polishing spectacles, manicuring, applying medicines and bandaging minor wounds. Keep a package handy in the kitchen, bath and bedroom—in the car.
For removing face creams, Kleenex has no equal. Sold at all drug, dry goods and department stores.

Microbes Found in Handkerchiefs

MURRAY THREATENS STATE OPERATION OF OIL STATIONS

Suggests Taking Over Some Refineries "to Whip High-Prices."

By the Associated Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Oct. 8.—Operation of oil refineries and retail stations by the State was threatened today by Gov. William H. Murray as a measure to subdue interests who are fighting his martial law oil field shutdown in Federal Court.

Murray made the threat through his newspaper, the Blue Valley Farmer. He said the plan would provide for a partial reopening of fields.

The Governor added that he would need only the patronage of the public "to whip this entire bunch of highlanders."

Irrked at the Federal suit filed this week by Frank Russell, oil man, to enjoin enforcement of the two-month-old shutdown, Murray said he had already secured options on two refineries and that others likely will be obtainable.

Murray has demanded $1 crude oil in return for reopening the fields. Recently much sentiment has been expressed for a reopening of the fields at the present top price of 70 cents a barrel. The Governor said he was "having a hard fight with the major companies—one with headquarters in New York and one called the Standard of Indiana." Others, he said, "are willing to co-operate with a reasonable price of oil."

MISSISSIPPI REJECTS COTTON HOLIDAY FOR CURTAILMENT

Approved Bill Limits 1932-33 Acreage to 30 Pct. of Land Under Cultivation.

By the Associated Press.
JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 8.—Mississippi went on record yesterday for cotton acreage curtailment in 1932 and 1933 as the House of Representatives passed the Senate-approved reduction bill and then defeated a cotton holiday measure. The reduction bill was approved by a vote of 101 to 33, while the no-cotton bill was turned down 74 to 61. The reduction bill now returns to the Senate for concurrence in House amendments.

Under the bill cotton acreage is to be limited in 1932 and 1933 to 30 per cent of all lands under cultivation at present. The bill was drafted along lines similar to the plan recently adopted by Texas.

South Carolina and Louisiana have passed measures calling for a cotton holiday in 1932, as advocated by Gov. Huey P. Long of Louisiana.

UNION HOSIERY WORKERS TAKE PAY CUT IN NEW AGREEMENT

18,000 Employees and 60 Manufacturers Affected; New Wage Arbiters Chosen.

By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—Officers of the American Federation of Full-Fashioned Hosiery Workers and the Full-Fashioned Hosiery Manufacturers of America, Inc., have signed a new wage agreement under which pay of union workers is reduced from 30 to 45 per cent.

Dr. George Wharton Taylor of the University of Pennsylvania was selected as wage arbiter, succeeding Dr. Paul Abelson.

The pact was signed with the intention of bringing peace within the industry which has suffered many strikes and wage differences since 1928, officers said. More than 18,000 workers and 60 manufacturers of the United States and Canada are affected.

ACQUITTED OF ROBBERY CHARGE

James Murphy, 22 years old, was acquitted of robbery in a sealed verdict opened yesterday by Circuit Judge Beck.

Murphy, paroled from Boonville reformatory, to which he was sentenced two years ago when convicted of robbery, was charged as an habitual criminal. He was identified by Hugh Miller, conductor of a Natural Bridge street car, as one of two men who robbed him of $70 at the western terminus of the car line last Aug. 17. Murphy's alibi that he was home sleeping at the time was supported by three witnesses.

NEGRO LAWYER FREED OF SUBORNING PERJURY

George L. Vaughn Found Not Guilty of Inducing False Testimony in Divorce Case.

George L. Vaughn, Negro attorney charged with subornation of perjury in connection with testimony in a divorce case, was acquitted by a jury in Circuit Judge Percy's court last night, after the jury had deliberated 40 minutes.

Witnesses against Vaughn were James Hutt, a Negro and former employee of the Assessor's office, and two Negro women. Hutt testified that Vaughn had arranged with him to get three witnesses to testify against the character of Mrs. Hazel R. Giles, who was suing to divorce Walter A. Giles, former Negro athletic director at Washon High School. Vaughn represented Giles.

The two Negro women testified that they had made false affidavits in Vaughn's office, after discussing the testimony with him. Vaughn's defense yesterday was a general denial, in which he said that he had acted in good faith, believing that when Hutt suggested the witnesses to him that their testimony would be truthful.

SAYS CAGO MAY RPRISE FANS; OTRE DAME IS SINGING BLUES

Associated Press. CAGO, Oct. 8.—Coach Amos Stagg's fourth University of Chicago football team is not a capable of defeating Michigan, a system far better than their rivalry for the trophy Saturday, but the team is figuring on giving the visitors a surprisingly tough noon.

Stagg has just about enough men to team with a few left over from the team which he is coaching his tiny squad of freshmen—a system far different from anything a Michigan eleven has used. What it accomplishes against Michigan depends upon whether Pat Page Jr., a sophomore, is eligible. Page had an examination to pass today. Kanne is still waiting to know how he fared in a correspondence test.

Stagg's "mystery" offense, which has done nothing to make the Wolverines less than a huge team. Coach Harry Kipke has a line, well fixed for rushing, and his sophomore backs are as good as anything in the West. He is sitting on the bench when the contest starts in Michigan's stadium.

Northwestern offered a cruel test to his hopes of ending Notre's reign, when he was defeated 14-0. When he was defeated 14-0, he was defeated 14-0. When he was defeated 14-0, he was defeated 14-0.

INVADERS ARE EXPECTED TO PUT UP STOUT GAME; TIERNEY OUT

By James M. Gould.

Regarding last week's defeat at the hands of Illinois as a closed incident, the Billikens of St. Louis have buckled down nicely to real work in preparation for their battle with Coe College, at Walsh Stadium, tomorrow night. The playmen, a bit upset over the result at Champaign, realized that they had no one to blame but themselves for the going wrong of a number of plays, and decided to "take it out on the next chap"—which happens to be Coe.

This reaction is a good one but it may not be quite so easy to make a team of the Billikens and jump through the hoop. Coe knows football and knows how to play it. Last Saturday the gentlemen from Cedar Rapids, Ia., held a Big Ten reputation played most of the time, to three touchdowns—not bad going.

The Iowa team was as heavy as the Billikens with a line weighing over 180 on the average and a backfield rated around 165. Coe, however, is a team of the season to Grinnell, 26-0, but scouts who watched that game reported that Coe got "all the breaks" and that they were for some of his attack but runs other plays from punt formation. In football, he is a "fundamental" and the players under him are well trained in the art of going places and knocking out the way such people as he are trying to stop said going.

Billikens to Lose Tierney.

But, all the good things said of the Iowa eleven have not convinced Head Coach Walsh that the Billikens are in for a beating. His players are in for a beating. His players are in for a beating. His players are in for a beating.

With this line in action and plenty of high-class substitutes for every position, the general feeling at St. Louis is that while they are not a team to worry about so far as Friday night is concerned.

Cards and A's to Attend.

The Cardinals and Athletics have been invited to the game as special guests of the officials. A special decorated section will be set aside for the World Series stars.

Following Coe, Rolla will be the Billikens' next opponent. Last year, these two teams played a game "for the hook" and the result was a tie. The game was played in a semi-circle and was a sensational through-out. The yardage of the many long passes caught would, if laid end to end, cover some miles. Rolla plays Oklahoma City U. tomorrow and as both are to oppose the Billikens, it may be that a St. Louis scout or two will watch the game.

Now, it can be told. During the Illinois game, Coach Walsh sent in a quarterback. When he reported to one of the officials, he was told that he couldn't give a signal until after one play had been run off. He demurred at this ruling which, of course, was incorrect, and was not allowed to give a signal until after one play had been run off. He demurred at this ruling which, of course, was incorrect, and was not allowed to give a signal until after one play had been run off.

Yankee Stadium Is Offered for Army-Navy Game

By the Associated Press. WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Use of the Yankee Stadium for the November charity football game between the Army and Navy was being considered by Jacob Ruppert, president of the New York Yankees, Maj. P. B. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at West Point, and other officials.

Fleming at the same time announced that Army athletic officials would confer with Navy representatives early next week and that after that conference full details for the playing of the game would be made public.

To Decide Monday.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 8.—Three athletic officials from the Naval Academy here will go to Philadelphia Monday for a conference with three officials from the Military Academy at West Point regarding the football for charity to be played between the two schools late this year.

Philadelphia, the midway point between the two service schools, has long been the conference ground it was pointed out. The stadium at the other half and of Capt. John W. Wilcox, director of athletics; Commander John L. Hall Jr., director of football and Roland R. Thomas, treasurer of the Naval Athletic Association.

CARDINALS HOME; DERRINGER WILL PITCH TOMORROW

Sergeant was undecided between Derringer and the older and more experienced Burleigh Grimes, who held the Athletics to two hits in his 5-2 victory last Monday. But he has his decision when the special pulled in.

Those who say that Grimes is the man who should face the enemy tomorrow point to his two-hit game on Monday. He will have had three days' rest and his admirers say that is enough. He is a veteran and while he gladly would pitch every other day, if necessary, he is at his best when he has had at least four days to prepare for his next assignment.

And Along Came Pepper.

The crowd at the stadium had only one hero of any magnitude. To the trainers who left their jobs, the waitresses who walked out of the restaurants, the telegraph boys, the police and the hundreds of others there was but one big reason for packing into Twenty-third street outside the station when the players finally came out a side entrance. They waited patiently for Pepper Martin.

The Oklahoma whirlwind got off the train a long way down the platform, with Mrs. Martin hanging to his arm as timidly as if she were a bride. The cowboy hat was cocked at a modest angle and Pepper hung onto his cigar as he grinned sheepishly while being photographed.

Then he was escorted down the platform and out the door, as the crowd cheered wildly. Police

POWERS TO TRY COMEBACK ON COLISEUM CARD

Frankie Powers will return to the ring after a year's absence to box for his old manager, Promoter Eddie "Kid" Bandy, in a six-round contest that will support the K. O. Christner-Angus Sney feature attraction at the Coliseum Monday night.

Powers will return, weighing 130 pounds, and has drawn as his opponent Tim Charles of Louisville, a fighter who was seen here several seasons ago as rivals of Joe Schwake and Dave Kneet. St. Louis two leading heavyweights.

Powers is a clever boxer for a big fellow. He is also a sharp puncher. Despite these attributes, Charles should provide a fair test for Powers' comeback effort, as the Southern lacks nothing in courage. Few will forget Charles' game between the Army and Navy and although he lost both bouts, he made many friends here by his refusal to be counted out. In the Kneet contest, the referee was forced against Charles' wishes to step in and stop the battle.

Auditor Says He Approved
Bills Because He Didn't Want Legislature to Cut
His Appropriation.

By CURTIS A. BETTS,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 8.—State Treasurer Brunk's investigation of irregularities in the handling of State funds from paid payrolls of Representatives turned temporarily today from padded payrolls to an analysis of the purchases of supplies.

Although this phase of the inquiry has only begun, it has progressed sufficiently. It may be said that the record shows an utter disregard of common business principles and plain violation of the law in the purchasing of House supplies.

Brunk said today that he had information from employees in the Capitol that several thousand dollars worth of supplies for which the State paid had not even been delivered to the Capitol. He said the employees from whom he received the information were trustworthy and were in positions to have the information. He had not gone far enough with his check, however, to verify their reports in all details.

Auditor Let It Pass.

The first of expenditure of State funds by the House of Representatives went unchecked by the State Auditor's office, which is charged with the duty of auditing accounts of all State departments and limiting them to legal expenditures, because, State Auditor Thompson explained, interference with the system would mean arousing the resentment of the Legislature and a reduction in the appropriations needed for the proper conduct of the Auditor's office.

The statutes of Missouri specifically provide that all stationery and supplies be purchased by the Legislature and by the State departments, shall be purchased under the State stationery contract made by the State Printing Commission, and shall be under the supervision of the commission. Purchases of stationery, which includes letter heads, envelopes, ink, pens and all office and correspondence supplies, except under the State contract are thus made illegal.

The House Committee on Purchasing, of which Representative Max Asotsky of Kansas City was chairman, ignored this provision of the law, and made virtually all purchases from favored firms in Kansas City and St. Louis. It has developed from an examination of the records that in many instances constant prices were paid—far in excess of the State contract price.

"Legislature Can Break Law,"
A refusal by the State Auditor to audit these accounts and an insistence to compliance with the law, would have saved the State a large sum of money.

Auditor Thompson, asked why the legal accounts had been audited, replied: "The Legislature broke the law, and I suppose, can break it if it wants to. I have always believed in playing along with the Legislature instead of antagonizing it. The Legislature makes all appropriations and if a department antagonizes it, the department is pretty likely to find itself without sufficient appropriation to function properly."

The members of the House Committee on Purchasing, in addition to Chairman Asotsky were representatives Riley of Scotland County, Smith of Lincoln, Hendren of Knox, Richards of Washington, McKinney of St. Francis, Clay of Jasper, Spearman of Miller, Hehl of St. Louis and Proctor of Wright. However, the rank of file of a committee of this character has little if any voice in the purchases. None of the bills show approval by the committee as a whole, though all bear the approval of Asotsky as chairman.

Some of the Purchases.
A check of all purchases by the House has not been completed and Brunk was unable to state the amount of money which had been expended, but several items had been gone over and complete purchases of some items had been made. This check was sufficient to give a good picture of the situation.

It was found that 231,000 letter heads and 240,000 envelopes had been purchased at a cost of $14,447. This was an average of approximately 2000 letter heads for each member of the House. In order that individual members might have their name on individual letter heads, $1644 was expended for the cutting that the names might be embossed.

HOOVER RESTATES POLICY ON "REPRODUCTIVE" LOANS

Repeats Part of Speech Made Four Years Ago
Opposing Borrowing by Nations for War or Balancing Budgets.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—President Hoover, reached back four years today to reiterate his theory of foreign loans, the following of which, he said, would have smoothed many a bump from the world's economic path.

Addressing the fourth Pan-American commercial conference, the President recalled his plea that foreign loans be made only for "reproductive purposes," delivered before the same conference in 1927. Then he was Secretary of Commerce.

"I repeat this today," the President said, "because had it been followed during these past five years our problems throughout the world would be far different, our difficulties infinitely less."

Expanding upon this idea, Mr. Hoover said he believed this constituted "a lesson from this depression." He repeated part of his four-year-old address which said that "if nations would do away with the balancing of budgets, for purposes of military equipment or war purposes, or even that type of public works which does not bring some direct or indirect productive return—a great number of blessings would follow to the entire world."

Text of Address.

The President's address was as follows:
"I am most happy to extend to you the warmest possible welcome on behalf of the Government and people of the United States. We are grateful to you for coming to Washington at this time to discuss the commercial problems of common interest to the nations of America. You are meeting during a period of widespread economic depression, but this fact emphasizes rather than diminishes the necessity for the nations of this continent to take counsel with one another."

"We recognize that the prosperity of each and every nation contributes to the prosperity of all. It is important that at conferences such as this the experience of each and every nation should be placed at the disposal of all in order that we may profit by the successes as well as learn the lessons of our failures."

"There is one lesson from this depression to which I wish to refer, and can present it no more forcibly than by repeating a statement which I made to this conference just four years ago, when we were in the heyday of foreign loans. I stated, in respect to such loans, that they are helpful in world development, 'provided always one essential principle dominates the character of these transactions. That is, that no nation as a government should borrow or no government lend and nations should discourage their citizens from borrowing or lending unless the money is to be devoted to productive enterprise."

Should Pay From Benefits.
"Out of the wealth and the higher standards of living created from enterprise itself must come the ability to repay the capital to be borrowed. Any other course of action creates obligations impossible of repayment except by a direct subtraction from the standards of living of the borrowing country or the impoverishment of its people."

"In fact, if this principle could be a member of the Legislature has as a matter of fact few of them have. A large majority of the members have virtually none. With the amount purchased each member would have had enough to give away 20 letters a day for each working day of the session."

Lead pencils constituted another large item of expenditure in the House. Altogether 15,408 were purchased, more than 100 for each member. The total cost being $753.40, or approximately 5 cents each, though they were purchased in large lots, sometimes as many as 10 gross of one kind at a time.

Discount Scratched Out.
Many of the pencils were bought from one concern in Kansas City, whose bill for them and some other supplies purchased on the same account made an interesting study. The total amount of the account was $424.20. A clerk, after adding the figures, placed below them a deduction of 5 per cent discount, amounting to $21.21, making the net bill $402.99.

Before payment the discount and the amount of the net bill had been scratched out with ink, leaving the amount approved by Asotsky and audited by the State Auditor at the gross figure of $424.20. Among the accounts was one for $200 for two vacuum cleaners supposedly for use in cleaning the carpets in the House chamber. The type purchased was the "Eee Vac." An examination of a hardware company catalogue in the office of the Commissioner of Permanent Seat of Government, who has charge of the purchase of supplies for the Capitol, shows that the most expensive model of this make of vacuum cleaner is listed at $51. Commissioner Lufcy told the Post-Dispatch correspondent a discount of approximately 50 per cent was allowed from that price. Indeed, he had examined the cleaners purchased by the House committee disappeared."

SWEDISH POET WINS NOBEL

PRIZE FOR LITERATURE

Posthumous Award Made to Dr. Eric Axel Karfeldt, Writer of Lyric Verse.

By the Associated Press.
STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 8.—The 1931 Nobel prize for literature was awarded today to Dr. Eric Axel Karfeldt, Swedish lyric poet.

Dr. Eric Axel Karfeldt died last April 7. It was he who introduced Sinclair Lewis, winner of last year's prize in literature, to the King of Sweden at the ceremony of presentation.

He was long regarded as one of Sweden's most gifted poets. His writings chiefly concerned the life and customs of the Dalecarlian peasants, his native stock.

In 1904 he was elected one of the 18 members of the Swedish Academy which awards the Nobel prizes, and in 1907 became a member of the Nobel Committee.

The rules of the Nobel Foundation stipulate that the works of a deceased writer may not be submitted for consideration. However, if the work is recommended before the death of the candidate it still may receive the prize.

CHANCELLOR BRUENING SLOW

IN FORMING NEW CABINET

Germany Without a Ministry for 24 Hours and Delay Causes Pessimism.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, Oct. 8.—Germany has been without a cabinet for 24 hours, and at midday Chancellor Bruening's chances of forming a new ministry soon did not seem bright.

The delay has caused some pessimism, for it had been expected that Bruening would be ready with a new cabinet a few hours after his ministry resigned yesterday.

He faces difficulties from three sides: President von Hindenburg wants the ministry distinctly rightist, eliminating the Socialist trade union influence; the Social Democrats threaten to swing into open opposition if the Chancellor moves to the right, and the Fascists refuse to have any part in any cabinet which Bruening heads.

The emergency decrees promulgated yesterday have brought expressions of dissatisfaction from many quarters.

GANDHI SAYS HE HAS FAILED

ON HINDU-MOSLEM PROBLEM

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Mahatma Gandhi announced today at the meeting of the Indian Minorities Committee presided over by Prime Minister MacDonald, that he had failed completely to settle the Hindu-Moslem communal problem.

Gandhi qualified his statement, however, by saying this does not mean he has abandoned hope of ever arriving at a solution of this issue. "I propose," he said, "to use the present failure as a stepping stone to success."

He added that the attempt to solve the communal problem must continue and that the failure thus far must not be permitted to block the other work of the round table conference.

He suggested appointment of a judicial tribunal at the end of the conference to examine the claims of the various communities which constitute India's population.

A van load of sandwiches and hot coffee was taken in for the delegates and Gandhi wrapped in an extra blanket, was one of the first to arrive at St. James's Palace for a meeting which began at 11 o'clock last night.

A. F. OF L. WOULD COMPEL CONGRESS
TO ACT ON RELIEF

Leaders Urge Use of "Big Stick" With the Threat of Later Repraisal at the Polls.

By the Associated Press.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 8.—Exhorting by speakers to take up the "big stick" and "compel" Congress to relieve unemployment under threat of political reprisal, the American Federation of Labor convention went to work today on the controversial issues before it.

Among the resolutions up for discussion was one introduced by Miss Florence Curtis Hanson of the Teachers' Federation. This resolution would put the Federation on record with demand for government employment assurances; work insurance financed by State and Federal aid; creation of a large reserve fund to support the unemployed in crises; shorter working hours; state control of industry, and a "long range" plan of public works.

Several speakers yesterday referred to "social revolution" and "social unrest" as a possible result of failure to solve the unemployment problem.

Edward Keating, former Representative in Congress from Colorado and editor of Labor, said the workers had "the inalienable right to work, and if industry denies that right, I insist industry must be taxed."

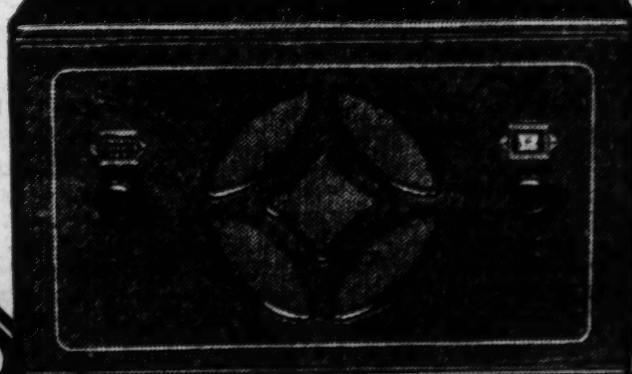

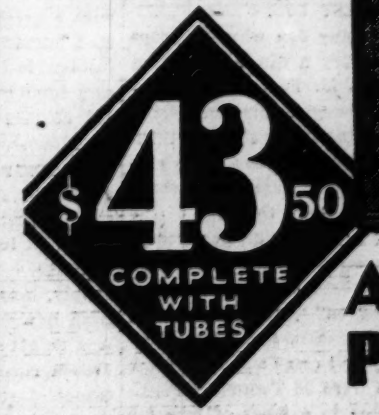

"Don't worry about what industrialists, capitalists and politicians tell you," said "Stick to your program. If Congress betrays you, you will have the record as a weapon to bring about a political revolution in 1932."

Internal disagreements, particularly trades and crafts discipline, are expected to be settled in committee. A dispute between the Building Trades Department and the carpenters, bricklayers and electrical workers was discussed secretly by a committee yesterday.

M. J. McDonough, president of the Building Trades Department, expressed the belief the matter would be ironed out before it reaches the floor.

V. P. QUEEN AT SUPPER WITH ROYAL RETINUE

Rain Ruins Frocks but Fails to Prevent Enjoyment of Occasion.

By MARGARET ALLEN RUHL.
A DRENCHING downpour of rain which persisted during her coronation ceremonies last night, and which followed her with increasing intensity as she motored to Hotel Jefferson, failed to dampen the enthusiasm of Miss Ann Ferriss, the Velled Prophet's newest Queen of Love and Beauty, and she presided at the Queen's own supper with the charm and savoir faire that would have done credit to a real monarch's consort.

Perhaps she was unaware, secure in a comfortable limousine proceeding swiftly under police escort to her destination, that hundreds of her loyal subjects, who a few moments before in their most elaborate raiment had risen from their seats to do her homage, were jammed under sieve-like awnings at the Coliseum, those same gowns being literally torn to shreds, evening wraps ruined, and slippers and dispositions alike strained to the breaking point as they waited for transportation to speed her on to greater triumph. Perhaps it was well that she didn't know, for why spoil a Queen's evening because fate had decreed rain?

In any event, the royal party made its entrance into the golden banquet room to the stirring strains of the march from "Aida" without an apparent care in the world.

A Royal Entrance.

Diners who awaited her paused as the word was passed that Her Majesty had arrived. A spotlight played on the doorway and the central aisle which had been made between the tables. The corridors were lined with admiring friends, many of them contemporary debutantes of the season eager to catch a close glimpse of the Queen, with her four special maids of honor and their escorts as they passed through crimson velvet roping and waited for a signal. The music started, trains were arranged, and Miss Mary Coit Day, on the arm of Francis D. Seward Jr., stepped forward into the light. Miss Day was followed in coronation order by Miss Eleanor Hoblitzelle with Churchill Condie; Miss Virginia Cave with Charles B. Fox Jr.; Miss Marjorie Capen on the arm of Charles E. Caspari Jr., and the Queen herself, escorted by John McMillan.

Miss Ferriss, who all evening had faced batteries of flashlights and thousands of well-wishers, rose again to the occasion, and calm and queenly, smiling in acknowledgment of its generous applause. No sooner was the royal retinue seated than the crowd turned its attention to serpentine, cotton snow balls and crepe paper. Empress Eugenie hats provided for its amusement, and proceeded to celebrate.

In the Prophet's Colors.

The Queen and her party were seated at last year at a long table placed on the stage at the north end of the banquet hall. Like the rest of the room, its chief decorative motifs were in the Prophet's colors of purple and gold. Huge baskets of gold and bronze chrysanthemums flanked the stage at each side and overhead was suspended a floral replica of the crown insignia of the veiled monarch in yellow blossoms. The table itself was draped in silver cloth, which hung to the floor, festooned with broad loops of gold-glow. Along its length purple asters and yellow roses, although banked low, almost concealed the royal guests. Miss Ferriss was seated in a golden chair, facing her subjects, with her immediate court of honor at each side reclining against purple velvet. A silver back drop caught and reflected purple and gold light.

Smaller tables for the parents of the principals, and Mrs. Harrison Hoblitzelle of Philadelphia, who came to St. Louis for the occasion, were laid on a slightly raised dais immediately in front of the Queen's party.

The hundreds of guests who filled the room occupied tables of varying sizes which had for their centerpieces golden epergnes filled with roses and dahlias with branched candelabra containing light yellow tapers emerging from their tops. The balcony was festooned with smilax interspersed with silver Velled Prophet shields.

Dancing Until Morning.

Dancing began almost immediately following the entrance of the Queen in the ivory room nearby, and continued until early morning. Some of the guests were Gov. and Mrs. Henry S. Caulfield, Mr. and Mrs. L. Warrington Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baldwin, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene T. Jenseney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. Vernon Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Hafner, Jr., and Mrs. Eberhard Auehauser, Miss Rocena Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sager, Mr. and Mrs. Byron W. Moser, Dr. and Mrs. George T. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Lawton, Mr. and Mrs. Royal D. Kercheval, Mr. and Mrs. Stratford Lee Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Julius V. Reinholdt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Jay Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Walker, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson and Miss Harriet Moreno. Groups of the new debutantes were the central figures in numerous parties scattered throughout the room.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Chapman Jr., 48 Kingsbury place, and Miss Caro Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holmes of the St. Louis Country Club grounds, will share honors at a New Years luncheon to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Firmin V. The sensational outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals stealing second in the fourth contest at Philadelphia—the fourth time, by the way, he had outguessed and outspeeded Mickey Cochrane of the Athletics, admittedly the smartest catcher in the American League.

You May Have Heard of Him.

As "Pepper" Martin stands at the plate. A photographic study of the Cardinals' center fielder who, playing his first world series games, tied the record of twelve hits. He did it in five games, however, while the three others, who made twelve hits in series of the past, did it in seven—and in one case—eight games.

Those powerful shoulders of "Pepper" Martin. More than one expert has expressed the belief that if he hadn't chosen baseball for a career he could have made a great success in the prize ring.

ROBBER SHOTS GROCER WHEN HE RESISTS HOLDUP

Horace L. Ettinger, manager of Kroger grocery at 2939 Park av., was shot in the face and severely wounded today by a holdup man whom he resisted.

At city hospital an X-ray examination disclosed the bullet lodged in Ettinger's neck, apparently having ranged downward.

The robber, wearing a brown water and light colored hat, entered the store at 10:45 a. m., carrying a market basket.

Where is the manager? he asked in a high-pitched voice, standing behind the counter with Ralph Bireley, 31 Vincent avenue, a clerk, beside him.

When I saw Ettinger resist, Bireley subsequently testified, "I turned. The man reached himself free from the counter and ran toward the door."

Ettinger was right after him, and seized him. They scuffled out to the sidewalk. The man's right hand free, shoved a silver in Ettinger's face, and pulled the trigger. The man then ran and got away.

Ettinger, who is 35 years old, lives at 2100 Park avenue with wife and daughter, regarded as a successful man.

The robber dropped the market in his flight. From personal observation in the neighborhood police station, Bireley described the robber, who is 35 years old, as about 5 feet 7 inches tall.
